CHAIRMAN'S VETO OF RECOMMENDATION TO DEVIATE FROM GUIDELINES:

1. Pursuant to NRS 213.133(7), if a recommendation made by a panel deviates from the standards adopted by the Board pursuant to NRS 213.10885 or the recommendation of the Division, the Chair must concur in the recommendation.

2. In the event the Chair does not concur in the recommendation, the case will be referred back to the panel that made the recommendation.

A. Chair's veto of panel's recommendation to grant when adopted standards provide to deny (deviation under):

1. The panel will consider the Chair's reasons for voting to deny parole and review the case factors, including time served to time remaining, impact on applicable victims, history, and any other relevant information to assist in determining the parole denial length.

2. In the event a majority of the Board cannot agree on the denial length, the inmate will be rescheduled for a hearing one year from the date of the current parole eligibility date, or sooner if the inmate becomes eligible for parole under NRS 213.1215 (Mandatory Release).

B. Chair's veto of panel's recommendation to deny when adopted standards provide to grant (deviation over):

1. The panel will consider the Chair's reason for voting to grant parole, or the reasons for a lesser denial period than the original panel recommendation, to assist them in determining whether to grant parole or to determine an appropriate period of denial.

2. If the Chair does not concur in the panel recommendation after further review, the inmate will be rescheduled for a hearing one year from the date of the current parole eligibility, or sooner if the inmate becomes eligible for parole under NRS 213.1215 (Mandatory Release).
