PAROLE GRANTS TO CONSECUTIVE SENTENCES & EXPIRATION OF SUBSEQUENT SENTENCE:

1. An inmate who has been granted parole to a consecutive sentence and is expiring a subsequent sentence with time still remaining on the sentence previously granted parole, may not be released from the NDOC until:

a. The Board has the opportunity to set any special conditions which may apply to supervision in the community;

b. The Division receives a viable reentry plan from the inmate (which may involve the participation of the Division in developing the reentry plan), and;

c. The Division conducts a pre-release investigation and approves the reentry plan.
