PAROLE GRANTS TO CONSECUTIVE SENTENCES & EXPIRATION OF SUBSEQUENT SENTENCE:

1. ~~A prisoner~~ An inmate who ~~had~~ has been granted parole to a consecutive sentence and is expiring a subsequent sentence with time still remaining on the sentence previously granted parole, may not be released from the NDOC until:

   a. The Board has the opportunity to set any special conditions which may apply to supervision in the community;

   b. ~~P&P~~ The Division ~~of Parole and Probation~~ receives a viable ~~parole~~ reentry plan from the ~~prisoner~~ inmate (which may involve the participation of ~~P&P~~ the Division in developing ~~said~~ the reentry plan), and;

   c. ~~P&P~~ The Division conducts a pre-release investigation and approves the reentry plan.

2. ~~The Division may request an institutional parole be revoked if the prisoner is expiring a sentence to parole, and he refuses to cooperate in establishing a viable release plan.~~